

The revival fire is spreading over all East Mayville. Two additions and three conversions last night and many calls for the prayers of the church at Mitchell's Chapel. Communion service and baptism and reception of members and preaching by Presiding Elder Reeves to-morrow at 10:30 a. m. Regular services this evening and to-morrow evening and through the week. The church's meeting this afternoon at 8 o'clock.

There will be services in the Methodist Episcopal Church to-morrow as follows: Sunday-school at 9:30 a. m.; preaching at 10:30 a. m., the topic being "A Study of our First Book of Kings," general class meeting at 2 p. m.; Epworth League devotional meeting at 6 p. m., topic, "Deborah, Zepheriah for God," preaching at 7 p. m., topic, "Jesus, the Christ, Our Savior." One and all are invited to come and join with us in worship. Comfortable room, free pews and good music.

At the Men's Meeting to-morrow the subject will be "How to Overcome." Professor E. Swift will lead. This should be sufficient to fill the Y. M. C. A. hall, for on Sunday every living creature should praise God. The room is open all day, and in the afternoon, when you have no place to go and feel that you must go to the hotels or loaf on the streets, come to the Y. M. C. A. You will find it bright, warm and cheerful. If you wish to read, magazines, newspapers and periodicals are in abundance; if you wish to converse, your friends are there; if you want to sing, you can do this, and best of all, at 8 o'clock the Men's Meeting is held, where you can sing, and worship God and give to God the blessed peace and joy which serving Him brings. You are cordially invited and a hearty welcome awaits you. Try it once and you will never want for a place to go. A business meeting will be held following at 4 o'clock.

The entertainment at the Opera-house Monday night by the Harvard Quartette, assisted by Miss Ada May Coates, will be a most charming one. So as it is for a worthy object—the benefit of the Episcopal Church—we earnestly trust that it will receive a liberal patronage.

CONFIRMED PROMPTLY.

The Senate Says Major Thomas J. Chenoweth For Postmaster.

As THE LEADER was first to announce the President's appointment, so it is first to announce that the Senate has confirmed the choice of Major Thomas J. Chenoweth for Postmaster in this city.

A telegram from Senator Blackburn yesterday brought the good news to the Major.

It will be some days, however, before the office changes hands, as there is a necessary amount of "red tape" to be unwound.

THE LEADER believes that the new appointee will make an efficient officer, and he certainly has its best wishes for the successful administration of the arduous and perplexing duties of that position.

Barring his bad politics, he is a most excellent citizen and a courteous gentleman.

GREAT EXCITEMENT

In the Sixth Ward Yesterday Afternoon Over a Shot.

Yesterday afternoon one of our policemen put his nerve in his pocket and started out for a quiet walk, never thinking that he was going to be the center of attraction in a small shooting affair.

After he had almost reached his turning point he saw one "Brandy Bill" Hill, a debrant, who is wanted in the Police Court on an old charge—that of disturbing the peace while on route home on one of the street cars last December.

As soon as the officer saw Mr. "William" he proceeded to place him under the strong arm of the law.

But Mr. "Brandy" wouldn't have it, and started to get out of the officer's way by running.

The noble arm of the law told him to halt, but he thought a good run was better than a bad stand, so he did the Hanks act.

It was at this point that the officer drew his artillery and trained it on the retreating form of "Bill."

And he didn't stop at the training point, but he unlimbered it, and we suppose if you would go and put your ear to the street car track you could hear the echoes yet.

But the salute didn't have any effect on "Bill's" gait, as he is probably traveling over the "burning mountain" in Lewis county by this time.

The officer wants to come to THE LEADER office and borrow our powder pistol, as all you have to do to write his name on a piece of paper and use it for a wand, and it'll get Mr. "Brandy Bill."

C. D. OUTER has been confined to his home for several days past with a severe attack of rheumatism.

JAMES M. WOOD, son of J. James Wood of this city, yesterday afternoon delivered the salutatory address before the Louisville College of Pharmacy.

Why does not THE LEADER give us a full account of the burning mountain near Concord? There was quite a discussion in this vicinity not long since as to whether there was a rainbow before the flood. Can some one discuss and decide the question in the columns of THE LEADER? We are sure it would interest a great many of our intelligent readers. [Info is too short and the cost of type setting the McKinley Bill is too high.—E. L. LAMON.]
